

Sam Hester's FanExpo Mural

When I was at Calgary FanExpo—a super fun event that you should go to if you have the chance—Sam Hester attended my panel and did a mural-piece based on it. She's given permission for me to post it here, and it's really fun (says the guy who stars in it!). Check this out...

You can check out more of her work at her home page, and you can follow her on Twitter @calgaryhester.
